things I have heard they said, the hand of the law will deal heavily with them, too.

"It appears that the friends of some of these defendants are determined to make it appear that the defendants are not receiving a fair trial. I want it to be known that this trial is being conducted with absolute fairness, and no evidence has been presented not in accord with the law. As for that woman, I hope she will not appear in the courtroom again.

Can He Be Trusted by No One. "I will increase Hockin's bond. The evidence has shown that he is a man who cannot be trusted by anybody. But as it is Saturday I will not consider the bonds of the others. Hockin will be taken in charge."

The Doctor's Advice

By Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply to any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Lawson, Dayton, Ohio, enclosing a stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or pseudonym will be used in the answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

Answer: Many women, old and young, who have suffered as you do, have been cured by using the following tonic restorative: Get from your druggist 1 oz. tincture cadomene (not caromene) and 6 oz. syrup of hypophosphites comp. mix and take a teaspoonful before each meal. Always shake well before taking.

"Mary" writes: "In the last year I have been gaining weight so rapidly that I am uncomfortable and frequently embarrassed by slighting remarks. Diet does not seem to help. What shall I do?"

Answer: You can very easily reduce your weight by using the following: Aromatic elixir 5 oz., glycerol aromaticum, 1 oz. Mix and take a teaspoonful after meals for three days, then double the dose and take for several days. This is a harmless and safe remedy. Many people write that they lost a pound a day after the first week or so.

"Caroline" writes: "My liver and kidneys are in a bad condition. I have dizziness and dark spots before my eyes. Also, I have a headache and aching in my back. What shall I do?"

Answer: To cure kidney and liver trouble use three grain sulphur tablets (not sulphur). These are packed in sealed tubes with full directions for taking. They act pleasantly and tone up the bowels and purify the blood. They are convenient, effective and highly curative.

"Phoebe" writes: "The following will cure your children of bedwetting: Get 2 drams of tincture rhubarb, 1 dram tincture cubebs and 1 oz. comp. fluid balsam. Mix and give the child from 10 to 15 drops in water about one hour before each meal."

"Maude" writes: "I have suffered a great deal with catarrh. It gives me headaches, affects my eyes and my breath is awful. Can you prescribe something to cure it? Only the nostrils and throat are affected."

Answer: I have prescribed antiseptic saline powder, and grateful letters from hundreds indicate that it is speedily curative, but must be used occasionally to prevent a recurrence. Get a two-ounce original package of saline powder, use a half teaspoonful to the hand, wash the water through the nostrils until thoroughly cleansed, two or three times daily. Mix a level teaspoonful of saline powder with an ounce of hot or warm water and apply well up into the nostrils twice daily and your catarrh should soon be cured.

"Hilda" writes: "I am troubled with itching scalp, dandruff and my hair is falling out. It is harsh and brittle. Can you prescribe something to cure it?"

Answer: Plain yellow Mineral is the best remedy for itching scalp, falling hair and dandruff. It is known as "Itch Cure" and is a good, safe and effective remedy. It can be bought in 4 oz. jars, and if used according to directions will cure all diseases of the hair and scalp. If the hair is harsh and brittle and falls out, wash with those stinging locks, the use of mineral will restore that soft, fluffy appearance and bring back the intense natural color. Advertisement.

"Miss M." writes: "I suffer greatly with my nerves, am almost on the point of nervous prostration. I cannot sleep and am hysterical at times. Can you help me?"

Answer: Your trouble is all due to your stomach, which causes the nervous, restless feeling. Take tablets triptopine and you will soon be cured of all this trouble. These are packed in sealed cartons and are pink, white and blue tablets to be taken after meals. Take the pink tablet after breakfast, the white after dinner and the blue after supper. If this is continued the curative action will soon restore natural digestion.

NEGRO ATTEMPTS TO ROB PAYMASTER

Holds Him Up at Pistol's Point, but Is Frightened Away by Arrival of Car.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Norfolk, Va., November 23.—A man named Stewart, paymaster for the J. B. Pettigrew Company, reported to the Lambert's Point police this evening that an unsuccessful attempt had been made to rob him of a value of $2,000 by a negro.

According to Stewart's report, the negro held him up at pistol's point at Lambert's Point Viaduct at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, and tried to grab the value containing the money from the paymaster's hands. Despite the fact that he was unarmed, Stewart held on to the value and gave the negro a hard time, at the same time yelling for help.

The negro was frightened away, however, by the arrival of a street car from the opposite direction, and a citizen who was running to his assistance in answer to his cries for help.

At the time of the hold-up Stewart was bound to Lambert's Point to pay off the employees of the Pettigrew Company, which has the contract for the erection of the large roundhouse and other improvements being made by the Norfolk and Western Railway.

The Lambert's Point police have been given a good description of the negro, and are trying to locate him.

REFUSE TO RAISE BAR TO POLITICS

The treasurer's report, read this afternoon, showed a deficit of between $10,000 and $11,000.

The election of officers will take place Monday morning. There is a general belief that Dr. Anna Shaw will be re-elected president without opposition, and that the other major officers will remain the same.

LYNCHING WILL FOLLOW CAPTURE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Cumberland, Md., November 23.—Hampshire County, West Virginia, is out in force scouring the mountains for a negro named Hardy, who, with his brother, Frank Hardy, held up Lee Inskeep, a prominent farmer near Romney this morning and, in broad daylight, tied his hands behind him, marched him to his house at the point of a pistol, and attempted an assault on his wife and his hired woman, Mary Heath.

Managing to free his hands, Inskeep picked up a shotgun and killed Frank Hardy just as the two bandits had overpowered the women. The other man took to his heels, after firing several shots, one of which struck Inskeep, inflicting a scalp wound. In the scuffle with the negroes, both women were injured, one of them, the hired woman, so badly that she will probably die.

The negro who escaped was later in the day surrounded by an angry mob of farmers. He was wounded and put up a stiff battle, firing at the mob with a revolver. He managed to give them the slip, and at last reports he was traveling toward Cumberland. Word has been sent along to look out for the negro. A lynching will surely follow his capture.

STABBED BY NEGRO
Son of County Commissioner of Revenue W. B. Frayser, was stabbed in the side under the left arm last night by Ben Hurdley, colored. The affray took place at 11 o'clock, near Harrison's Drug Store, on Williamsburg Avenue. Mr. Frayser was removed to the Virginia Hospital, where the surgeons stated that the wound was not serious.

The negro was arrested by County Officer C. W. Soy and Sheriff Kemp. He was first lodged in the County Jail, and later removed to the First Police Station.

ARRESTED BY FIREMEN.
Negro Attempts to Break Into Home and Retreat.
Lynchburg, Va., November 23.—Last night John Robinson, colored, attempted to break into the Home and Retreat, but was frustrated in his plans by the arrival of three firemen from Department No. 3 and three policemen.

The negro was arrested by the man looking in at the windows, but as their windows are screened, he could not get in. He then climbed up on the porch, and looking in at one of the upper windows, frightened a patient so much that she ran out into the hall screaming. By this time, the nurses had phoned for the police, and also called the firemen to their rescue.

The firemen promptly responded and held the negro for the arrival of Sergeant Smith and Policemen Chaffin and O'Donnell.

GOMPERS CHOSEN BY FEDERATION

Opposition Fails to Defeat Him for Presidency of Union Men.

SEATTLE WINS NEXT MEETING

"Big Bill" Haywood Gets "Trimming" at Hands of One of Delegates.

Rochester, N. Y., November 22.—Samuel Gompers was re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor this afternoon over Max Hayes, of the International Typographical Union. The vote was: Gompers, 11,974; Hayes, 8,074. It was the first time in ten years that there had been opposition to Mr. Gompers, who has been re-elected annually since 1895. All other officers were re-elected.

The convention defeated the United Mine Workers' resolution, calling for future elections by a referendum vote of the federation's 2,000,000 members. In the election the only contest other than that for the presidency was over the third vice-presidency. James O'Connell, the incumbent member of the Machinists' Union, defeated William H. Johnson, president of the International Brotherhood of Machinists, by 10,859 to 6,175.

Seattle was chosen as the 1913 meeting place. Delegates from Richmond officially extended an invitation to the federation to hold the 1913 meeting in Richmond. Many of the labor men favored Richmond.

All through the week the sessions of the convention have been of a lively and entertaining nature, but the climax was reserved for to-night. It was a fight, a real scrap.

Italy was said to be mobilizing a naval force, and Germany was known to be mobilizing a big military force to support Austria, their ally, in case of need. England, Russia's ally, had its navy in fighting trim a year ago. France, England's ally, has no very direct interest in the Balkan situation, but is known to be bound to help Russia at this time if need be.

The question of war or peace, however, was regarded by the best judges to-night as depending on the turn of a coin. If Serbia yields and the "win-down" stays there will be peace. If it decides Austria there will be war. Would Serbia yield? The chancelleries did not know.

While the powers prepared for war and talked peace, the Balkan allies and Turkey talked peace and fought. To make the Turkish fleet in the Sea of Marmora kept the Bulgarians back, a big Turkish force landed at the southern extremity of the Tchatalja line of forts. Landed, they pushed the Bulgarians with fury. The Bulgarians fought desperately for an hour, then fell back leaving the field covered with dead and wounded.

There was fighting, more or less, and mostly at long range, all along the line of the Tchatalja fortifications. Several active delegates passed out into the night.

Presently, in front of the Rochester laundry, which is in Court Street, some 200 feet from the hall, rose sounds of a row. One of the delegates was a large man, an active man. The noise was made mostly by Bill Haywood and the crowd which gathered around him. Haywood was making a sound with his mouth. Haywood was begging the crowd to make him quit what he was doing with his fists, and the crowd was clamoring for more of the same.

Haywood finally broke away and rubbed into the laundry, where he begged the laundry girls to pick him up from the mob. The girls looked at him and Haywood was finally rescued by a patrolman, who responded to a riot call. Thither also came the automatic patrol from headquarters, and the convention hall, where the tangle was straightened out. Barnes refused to press the charge of assault against Haywood. Haywood had nothing to say about Holland, and Holland was perfectly satisfied with things as they were.

OPENLY DEFY JURY TO CONDEMN THEM

there, so will Giovanniotti. We will go with heads erect, singing the songs of labor, with a smile on our lips and no threats. But on the morning we drop the flag hundreds of thousands of wage-earners will pick up the flag of the workers is unfurled over the work-shops, and workers will enjoy the profit of their toil. I go to the happy thought that I will be with the happy thought that on the eve of it I was defending my ideas. If I go to my death millions of men and women will know that my heart was with the cause.

I neither offer apology nor ask a favor. I ask for justice. Are you twelve men going to offer your blood now in order to assuage the wounds of the mill owners of Lawrence?

"Well, and good; I have no fear of the result. I take simply justice. Giovanniotti asks that; Caruso asks only that."

When Ertor sat down Giovanniotti rose to speak. He made a plea for socialism, and like Ertor, asked for the full verdict if thought guilty. He also pleaded for Caruso, and urged the jury to let him go, to let him go, to let him go.

"If there is murder in the heart of any man in this room, he is not this case," Giovanniotti declared. "I have a love who loves me, a mother who loves me, an ideal that I love."

Does Not Want to Die.
"Life is so wonderful. I feel the passion of living. It is sweet to live. I do not want to die to go away as a martyr. Though life is dear to me, there is something better and grander. That is my conscience and loyalty to my comrades and my cause."

I want to say that in the next strike that breaks out in the country where we are needed, there will be Ertor and Giovanniotti. We will go to the front with our soldiers in the mighty army of workers of the world.

"If it be that our hearts must be stilled by electric chair or by the wire, we will pass into a greater judgment; into the presence of the Almighty, and there we will give to our loved ones whatever you desire. I leave it to your judgment."

Caruso, through an interpreter, announced that he had nothing to say. In closing his argument Mr. Atwell described the character of the industrial workers of the world, "revolutionary, militant, organized, and determined that it was preposterous for Ertor, leader of his organization, to claim that in the Lawrence conflict he was an apostate. He was forced to William D. Haywood as 'that traitor master who slipped out of Lawrence and was not present when the rioting occurred.'"

The revolutionary character of the Industrial Workers, he asserted, was foreign to American principles. "They say they are going to carry out a revolution independently of political conditions," he said. "How can any revolution be a peaceful revolution?"

"When this man Ertor comes here and teaches the foreigners who arrive on our shores that the Constitution of our Commonwealth is a capitalist Constitution, he is teaching sedition and treason."

"We have problems in our State, but we can settle them without the Haywoods, Ertors and the Giovanniottis of Italy. It is a question of the sovereignty of the State or the sovereignty of the mob."

JOHNSON SUEED AGAIN
Brewing Company Wants Him to Pay for Beer Used.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Chicago, November 23.—In addition to all his other troubles, Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, late to-day was sued by the G. Heileman Brewing Company for $1,150.25, alleged to be due for beer sold to Johnson's "Cafe De Champion" during October.

Earlier in the day the pugilist made an unsuccessful attempt to see Lucile Cameron, the nineteen-year-old white girl from Minneapolis, whose relations with Johnson started the investigation that led to his indictment under the Federal white slave law. Judge Carpenter ruled that no one except the girl's mother could visit her at the Rockford, Ill., county jail, where she is being held as a witness against the negro.

Suit for $1,200 was entered in the City Law and Equity Court yesterday by Robert M. Green & Sons against George Abraham and others.
